School is Out: Watch for Kids!

As the end of the school year approaches, we would like to remind drivers and parents the importance of keeping kids safe during the last week of school and throughout the summer. Kids will be excited about the last few days of school and not necessarily thinking about their personal safety. Neighborhoods that were practically empty during the school year will be filled with kids on bikes, skateboards, and playing games. Drivers need to be extra cautious in looking out for children during the summer.

- When driving, pay attention and scan the entire area around you.
- Look for kids playing near the street and slow down. Children are often unpredictable and unaware of danger around them.
- Slow down around children and other pedestrians.
- Always stop at STOP signs and look both ways before crossing the street.

Need to report a pot hole or a road surface condition that is in need of repair, please contact us at 664-0166 or email: barringtondpw@gmail.com

Traveling Abroad on a Budget: Experiences of a Barrington Native

Wednesday, July 27, 2016 at 6 PM

Alexis has been working abroad as a science teacher for the last three years and has lived in Ecuador, Qatar and Taiwan. She has had the wonderful opportunity to travel to many different countries and now is excited to be home for a short while before moving on to the next country.

Alexis Says:

When I share photos and travel stories with friends and family back home, many ask how I can afford to travel on a teacher's salary. Traveling on a budget is easier than you think and I've been lucky enough to travel to five continents while still being able to save. I am excited to share my experiences of living and traveling abroad, including living with a host family that speaks a different language, unexpected challenges in the Middle East and the hilarious misunderstandings that often occur while speaking Mandarin. Living abroad is a blast and traveling can be cheaper than expected. I hope to share these stories and experiences with you.

Barrington Conservation Commission & Trails Committee

Official opening of the A Harlan Calef Isinglass Preserve Saturday, July 9, 2016 @ 10:00 AM

On July 9 at 10 AM the Barrington Conservation Commission will host a public 'roll-out' of the A. Harlan Calef Isinglass Preserve, which was conserved in December 2014.

The event will involve hikes to showcase the existing trails, the frontage of the land on the Isinglass River and other natural features, and some of the history of the property. We will also thank the many funders that made this project possible.

The reason that this celebration is so delayed is that there have been problems installing a parking area on the property. Although the issue is on its way to being resolved, we decided to go ahead with this event – this property is too special to keep “under wraps” any longer!

Depending on the numbers and desires of those who come, the hikes may be anywhere from about ½ mile to about 3 miles. When you RSVP, please indicate how long a hike you might be interested in: ½ mile, 1-2 miles, or more than 2 miles. All of the hikes are on fairly level terrain.

Wear appropriate clothing and shoes, bring some water to drink, and please leave your dogs at home.

Since there is no parking area, we ask that you park along Town Farm Rd., close to where the property is located. Carpooling is encouraged.

Directions: Town Farm Rd. goes south off of Rte 202 about ~ 1 ½ miles east from its intersection with Rte 126. It is just west of the Ayers Lake Campground. Park along Town Farm Rd. after you pass the road/driveway on the right about 1/3 mile from Rte 202, and before you get to the house at the end of the road about ½ mile from 202. Since parking might be a bit tight, please carpool if you can.

RSVP to John: crawford@myfairpoint.net.

Barrington Conservation Commission & Trails Committee

Explore New Habitat in Barrington Saturday, August 6, 2016 @ 9:00 AM

It's been about a year and a half since the creation of new habitat on the town-owned Samuel A Tamposi Water Supply Reserve (SATWaSR), and the Barrington Conservation Commission and Trails Committee are holding a public hike to see how these recently cut areas are doing.

At 9AM on August 6, Charles Moreno, the forester who directed the project, and UNH Cooperative Extension Wildlife Outreach Program Coordinator, Haley Andreozzi, will lead this exploration. They will explain the project and how these relatively small clear-cuts create just the sort of habitat that the bunnies (and many other animals) need.

A group of volunteers planted some native shrubs in one area of the property in May, so we can see how those are doing as well as how the rest of the property is faring.

The hike will be less than two miles long and involves a few mild hills. We plan to repeat this hike over the next several years in order to observe the succession of what is still rather bare ground into low brush and small trees - a habitat that used to be common in New Hampshire but is now relatively rare.

SATWaSR is a ~ 1400-acre property owned by the town of Barrington and protected by a conservation easement held by the Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests.

Note: the date is subject to change, so please either register or check the conservation commission's web site, barringtonconcom.org.
